

Are you interested in International Law?

Are you a 2L or 3L?

Have you taken an International Law course?

If you can say yes to all three questions, then you are eligible for the Freeman Fellowship, a $5,000.00 scholarship awarded to one student to study Public or Private International Law at the prestigious Hague Academy of International Law over the summer.

The Hague Academy is the academic wing of the International Court of Justice, also known as the World Court. Law students come from all over the world to hear leading international lawyers give classes on issues of cutting-edge importance. More information about the Hague Academy is available at <http://www.hagueacademy.nl>.

Applications for the fellowship are now being accepted.

To apply, please submit (i) a cover letter explaining your qualifications for the fellowship and (ii) a current resume to Ms. Holly Hughes, Coordinator of the Program for International Legal Studies. All applications should be delivered in hard copy to Ms. Hughes in the Damon J. Keith Center. Release of your current transcript is necessary.

Questions can be directed to Holly Hughes at hhughes@wayne.edu.

Submission Deadline:

Monday, February 6, 2012