LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

A. RACHEL MYUNG

It is a privilege and honor to introduce the Journal of Law in Society’s “Beyond Bankruptcy” Edition. This Edition begins with a mindful discussion of the Detroit Bankruptcy, and ends with potential solutions to the very complex and upsetting problems that remain. The City of Detroit’s circumstances continue to prompt debate, but we hope that this collection of articles will provide insight into the strong undercurrent that is Detroit itself. This corridor barricaded by highways is home to a resilient community of individuals, families, and neighborhoods that continues to face and overcome challenges that no other city in the country has endured. Since its inception, the Journal of Law in Society has been dedicated to social justice. We seek to provide a platform for authors to challenge the status quo by posing questions which may otherwise go unasked.

We would also like to extend our deepest gratitude to the 2014-2015 Journal of Law in Society’s Executive Board. This edition is just as much a fruit of your labor as it is ours. Specifically, we would like to extend a special thank you to: Steven J. Knox, Erica J. Shell, Melissa Kliemann, Jillian M. Peterson, Kathleen Garbacz, Kimberly Grzic, and Nadine Yousif.
