

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL
ELECTION OF COURSE FOR FULLFILLMENT OF
UPPER-LEVEL PROFESSIONALISM, PROFESSIONAL IDENTITY AND CROSS-CULTURAL LAWYERING REQUIREMENT

J.D. PROGRAM ONLY

J.D. students commencing study in 2022 or thereafter must meet Professionalism, Professional Identity and Cross-Cultural Lawyering requirements, which include the successful completion, with a final grade of "C" or higher, a cross-cultural lawyering course or seminar. The Academic Affairs and Curriculum Committee, in consultation with the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Committee, shall designate courses and seminars that are anticipated to include substantial emphasis on matters of bias, racism, and cross-cultural competence as eligible to fulfill this requirement. The Law School Records Office will publicize a list of courses and seminars that have been so designated. Courses designated as fulfilling this requirement shall not be treated as required courses for purposes of the grading norms (Appendix B).

Note 1: A student may not use the same course or seminar elected to fulfill the Professionalism, Professional Identity and Cross-Cultural Lawyering requirement to also fulfill another requirement such as the Upper-Level Writing Requirement or the Experiential Learning Requirement. Student's initials: _____

Note 2: A grade of "C" or better, or a grade of "P" if elected on a Pass/No credit basis, must be earned in the course in order for the course to be counted as fulfilling the requirement. Student's initials: _____

Note 3: The Academic Regulations prohibit registering for two seminars in the same term or for registering for a seminar and a Directed Study in the same term. Exceptions will not be granted for students attempting to meet both the Upper-Level Writing Requirement and the Professionalism, Professional Identity and Cross-Cultural Lawyering requirement in the same term. Student's initials: _____
