NOTICE TO STUDENT:

1) You will receive credit for this course toward the JD degree provided he/she receives a grade of “C” or better.

2) The grade for this course will not appear on your law school transcript or be factored into your grade point average.

3) University policies preclude you from submitting this course toward a degree in addition to the JD degree unless you are enrolled in a joint degree program.

4) Your enrollment in this graduate level course precludes you from electing a law school course this term on a pass/no-credit basis.

5) The credit you receive for this course will not count toward the requirement that you complete 64 credit hours in courses requiring regularly scheduled class sessions at the Law School in order to obtain your JD.
